handwashing station can make you feel as convenient as in a real bathroom or kitchen, when you are outdoors. Just need to step on the hands-free foot pump to get continuous water, wash hands with the liquid of soap dispenser, finally hang the towel on the rack.

- COMPOSTING TOILET: The T-type water outlet of portable toilet can effectively flush the bowl. And the rotating pour spout can help you dump the waste quickly without splashing. The humanized level indicator can remind you to empty the waste tank, when it turns red, which means full-tank waste.
- SAFE & LEAK-PROOF: The camping wash basin and porta potty are both made of high-density HDPE material, which is safe to wash items and anti-leakage to prevent the nasty odors of waste. Strong structure and durable materials for long-term use.
- EASY TO INSTALL: For its detachable and compact design, the outdoor sink can be set up by yourself in minutes without needing additional tools. The detailed user guide can help you accelerate the process very much. While the camping toilet needs no installation.

Portable and Easy to set up

Overall a good product. The sink and toilet set is easy to assemble and store. I brought it with me during my recent 5-day camping trip. It took me 10 minutes to assemble it, and all my friends were pleased with it.

My only issue with this was that you had to buy a can of spray silicone to grease things up just to put it together.

Nice concept

Reviewed in the United States on April 23, 2021

Great option for a cargo trailer conversion or other types of portable camping application where you might have limited water supply. The sink base has some anchor points so you can keep it from moving around if desired. The toilet is rather basic, but the flush system seems to work well. Now for the flaws... The toilet is compact, but that makes the seat small. Larger framed people will not find it comfortable at all. The plastic is about what you would expect, at least that makes it pretty easy to clean. The biggest flaw is how the toilet lid interacts with the hose that connects the sink to the toilet. I might end up sawing off the corner of it because it gets stuck on the hose making it difficult to open and close the lid. Also of note: the hose is a VERY tight fit to the toilet inlet, it took considerable force to get it to push in on mine. Also, a real nit pick, but the towel holder is just a flimsy stick of plastic, they could have put a little effort into molding something that would actually hold a towel securely.
